2. That at all times mentioned herein, the Defendant, ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY, was and is an Illinois corporation, and as such, was a citizen and resident of the State of Illinois, and was controlled, operated, and maintained in interstate commerce, engaged in transporting interstate commerce between various states, including the States of Illinois and Kentucky.

3. That at all times mentioned herein, the Plaintiff, STEVEN R. BERGFELD, was and is an employee of the Defendant ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY, a corporation, and had been for many years prior thereto.

4. That at all times mentioned herein, all or part of the duties of the Plaintiff, as such an employee, furthered interstate commerce by the Defendant railroad or in some way directly or substantially affected said commerce.

5. That on or about April 21, 2008, or on a date known more certainly to the Defendant, the Plaintiff was employed by the Defendant as a locomotive engineer and as such was operating a train at or near Effingham, Illinois.

6. That at the above time and place, Plaintiff while in the performance of his duty as a locomotive engineer, was shoving cars ahead of his engine, and was injured when locomotive cars were directed into a standing cut of cars, causing a collision.

7. That at said time and place, the Defendant, by and through its agents, servants, and employees, negligently and carelessly committed one or more of the following acts or omissions to wit:

- (a) Failed to provide Plaintiff with a safe place to work;
- (b) Failed to provide Plaintiff with a reasonably safe manner within which to do his work;
- (c) Failed to properly align a switch;
- (d) Failed to alert Plaintiff of a standing cut of cars in the path of his movement;
- (e) Failed to warn Plaintiff of the presence of a standing cut of cars; and
- (f) Allowed unsafe practices to become the common practice.

8. That as a direct and proximate result, in whole or in part, of one or more of the aforesaid mentioned intentional acts, or acts of negligence or omissions on the part of the Defendant, the Plaintiff, while in the performance of his duty as a locomotive engineer, and in connection with and in the scope and course of his employment, was caused to become injured when his train collided with a cut of cars causing Plaintiff to sustain severe and permanent injuries to wit: injuries to the muscles, tendons, ligaments, nerves, soft tissues, bones, and vertebrae of the neck, back, and spine; injuries to the both shoulders; injuries to the muscles, tendons, ligaments, nerves, soft tissue and bones of the right shoulder and of the legs; that Plaintiff sustained injuries to his arms; that Plaintiff sustained an aggravation of a pre-existing condition; that Plaintiff has sustained pain and suffering in the past and is reasonably certain to experience pain and suffering in the future as a result of said injuries; that Plaintiff has incurred permanent disfigurement and disability resulting from said injuries; that Plaintiff has lost and will continue to lose large sums of money from his usual occupation; that Plaintiff has sustained a permanent impairment of his earning capacity; that Plaintiff has become obligated in the past for medical expenses resulting from his injuries and will be obligated in the future to expend large sums of money for necessary medical care and treatment and services; that Plaintiff has sustained brain damage; all to Plaintiff's damages.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, STEVEN R. BERGFELD, prays judgment against the Defendant, ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY, a corporation, for money in excess of SEVENTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($75,000.00) in an amount adequate to fairly and reasonably compensate him for damages sustained herein plus costs of this suit, plus pre-judgment interest, and for such other relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
